DATA HELD SECURELY BY THE CHURCH, LATEST ADVICE FROM CHURCH OF SCOTLAND

Where the processing of data is carried out in the course of its legitimate activities with appropriate safeguards by a foundation, association or any other non-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade-union aim and on condition that the processing relates solely to members or former members of the body or to persons who have regular contact with it in connection with its purposes and that the data are not disclosed outside that body without consent, the processing is allowed and there is no absolute obligation to obtain explicit consent. The advice from Presbytery is, therefore, that there is no requirement to issue letters to members along the lines previously suggested and that the matter is dealt with by reminding people that we hold information securely for the purposes of the Church of Scotland.
